2^e ex. K. 3721a. Prov.: Don d'Oswald Ottendorfer, New-York, 31. VII. 1885. A l'intérieur du 1^{er} plat, fiche découpée d'un catalogue anglais: First edition... large initial, coloured letters lightened with gold, ...a most splendid specimen of printing in its very earliest infancy. Very fine copy. Original stamped monastic binding. ...Dibdin and other bibliographers state that it was printed at Strasbury by J. Mentelin about the year 1470, although a previous possessor has titled it «Faust, Mayence 1474.» It is excessively rare, and no copy exists in the British Museum or the Spencer Library. This volume formed part of the treasures of the late library at Strasburg, which was entirely destroyed during the late seige. This and a very few other volumes alone being saved from total destruction. It ought to be in a national library.» Au verso du f. de garde: «Editio antiquissima, typis Mentellianis impressa. Cat. Palm V, n° 1862. Liber rarissimus. Theod. de Mann (?) pos.» Rel. anc. 477
